Education night for parents with the teachers: This was a night scheduled in November for all grades. The teachers organized a night to discuss what and how material was being taught in class to the students. There was some mixed feedback as some parents did not received timely notifications of the event while other grades notified parents timely. Parents who attended loved this idea, the curriculum was explained and demonstrated very well. Don't worry if you missed this event there was some discussion for another night to held be in Spring.
